BOW POLICE DEPARTMENT
Bow, New Hampshire
EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY

POSITION: Police Officer (Certified)

The Bow Police Department is seeking qualified applicants for a full-time certified Police Officer. The Bow Police Department authorized 13 full-time Officers and 1 civilian admin assistant. Some specialties include: K9 Officer, Detective, SRO, Firearms, Defensive Tactics, RAD Instructors. The Department is also a member of the Central New Hampshire Special Operations Unit.

REQUIREMENTS:
Applicants must be currently employed as a full-time New Hampshire certified police officer or have been employed as a full-time New Hampshire certified police officer within the last 12 months, OR currently employed as a full-time out of state police officer, or have been employed as a full-time out of state police officer within the last 12 months, whose certification is recognized by the Police Standards and Training for the State of New Hampshire (Law Package).

Applicants must be able to pass a physical fitness test, oral board interview, polygraph exam, background investigation, psychological exam and drug screening.

COMPENSTION:
$26.29 - $32.04 per hour depending on experience.
$54,683.20 - $66,419.20 annually

SIGNING BONUS:
$2,500.00 signing bonus shall be paid upon three installments throughout the probationary year. $1,000 paid upon successful completion of thirty (30) days of employment; and $750.00 paid upon successful completion of sixty (60) days of employment; and $750.00 paid upon successful completion twelve (12) months of employment.

BENEFITS:

- Health insurance benefits package or a health insurance buy-out
- Annual paid time off
- Sick Leave
- Holidays – 11 paid days (OT for working)
- NH Retirement System Group II
- Extra Duty Details (current rate of $52.50/hour)

APPLY: Candidates must apply through POLICEAPP.COM under Bow Police.
CLOSING DATE: Open until filled.

The Town of Bow, New Hampshire is an Equal Opportunity Employer (EOE)